

The State further introduced the following transcript of the testimony of Grace Hicks as given at the original trial:

“Q. How did you know that that was Mary Phagan? A. I just knowed her by her hair being so long.

Q. Knew her by her hair? A. Yes sir.

On cross examination counsel for the defendant asked said witness, among others, the following questions, and received the following answers, viz:

“Miss Grace, what sort of hair did little Mary Phagan have? A. Well she had a kind of sandy color of hair.

Q. Was it lighter than yours or less light? A. It was darker than mine.

Q. Darker than your hair? A. Yes sir.

Q. Much darker? A. Well, it was about two shades darker than mine.

Q. You would say about two shades; she was still a blond girl, though? A. Yes sir.”
